Repatriation Commission

MyService (Electronic Lodgement and Claims Approval – Education Scheme Claims) Instrument 2018

Instrument 2018 No. R68

I, MARK HARRIGAN, delegate of the Repatriation Commission, pursuant to subsection 5T(3) of the Veteran's Entitlements Act 1986 (VEA) and paragraph 2.2.1 of the Veterans' Children Education Scheme and paragraph 2.2.1 of the Military Rehabilitation and Compensation Act Education and Training Scheme 2004 (the Education Schemes):

1. approve, for claims for benefits under the Education Schemes, the manner of electronic lodgement known as the “My Service Online Claim Lodgement System” (MyService System) described in Schedule 1; and

2. approve, for claims for benefits under the Education Schemes transmitted electronically in the manner set out in Schedule 1, the electronic address listed in Schedule 2 or such other electronic address as may from time to time be in place or approved by the Repatriation Commission or delegate for the MyService System; and

3. approve, for claims for benefits under the Education Schemes lodged electronically in the manner set out in Schedule 1, the form of claims described in Schedule 3.

This instrument is in addition to, and does not replace, any other approved forms for claims for benefits under the Education Schemes.

This instrument commences on 25 June 2018.

Dated this 25th day of May 2018.

MARK HARRIGAN
SCHEDULE 1

The MyService System

The online system known as "MyService" approved and funded by the Department of Veterans’ Affairs and consisting of client online registration, integration of profiling data, and client input in response to system-generated personalised questions designed for the purpose of assessing eligibility for entitlements under Veterans’ Affairs legislation and related services.

SCHEDULE 2

Electronic Address for the MyService System

SCHEDULE 3

Approved form for claims under Education Schemes lodged via the MyService System

A claim is taken to be in the approved form for the purposes of the MyService System if the client has completed all required online data fields generated by the MyService System in respect of his or her claim for cover under the MyService System.
